

Schine Says He Doesn't Know Who Altered Stevens Photo

By Ed Creagh
Washington (AP)—Pvt. G. David Schine, the millionaire draftee in the McCarthy-Pentagon case, took the witness stand and the TV spotlight yesterday. And, under a protective barrage of shouted objections by his former boss, Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), Schine testified:

One—McCarthy is right—Schine posed for a photograph with Secretary of the Army Stevens last Nov. 17 at the specific request of Stevens. The Army secretary says he doesn't remember it that way at all.

Two—McCarthy's Pentagon op-

Schine explained that when he turned the photo over to McCarthy aides, the colonel was in it.

He had nothing to do with cutting the colonel out, he said, and doesn't know who did it.

The wavy-haired, 6 feet 3 Schine took over the witness stand from Stevens over the vehement objections of McCarthy, who was far from finished with cross-examining the Army secretary and protesting that to break up the testimony was "changing the ground rules in the middle of the game."

McCarthy's hottest blasts, however, were delivered after Schine—who said he gave the original photo to George Anastas of the investigations subcommittee staff last Thursday—testified he couldn't remember whether Anastas attended a restaurant meeting of the McCarthy staff last Monday.

Ray H. Jenkins, special counsel to the subcommittee, demanded a yes or no answer, and McCarthy came up fighting.

He accused Jenkins of "badgering" Schine. He said the questioning was "indecent" and "improper"—"the most improper thing I've ever seen." And he shouted: "Maybe it will serve a purpose—because the American people are watching this spectacle."

Obviously seething, Jenkins retorted he was only trying to get at the facts. The uproar ended when the personable young Schine—who confined his answers to military-type "yes, sirs" and "right, sirs" as much as he could—said he thought he ought to see a lawyer.

Amid laughter, Schine explained he wanted a lawyer to advise him whether he ought to have a lawyer with him in further testimony. He'll be back on the witness stand at 9:30 a.m. today.

Schine's appearance—under subpoena—followed testimony by Secretary Stevens that he (Stevens) might conceivably have suggested a phone call in which a top aide sought to quash charges against some employees at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., last November—just before those employees were to be suspended on security grounds.

The Army secretary, plainly willing in his sixth day on the witness stand, acknowledged this possibility after Jenkins dramatically produced a memo dictated by the Ft. Monmouth commander,

Major Gen. Kirke Lawton, just before the morning session opened. That memo referred to John G. Adams, Army counsel, and said: "Adams asked Lawton by phone if he could see his way clear to withdraw certain cases which you (Lawton) have recommended for removal as bad security risks."

It then quoted Lawton as saying: "I will not. Let the secretary (Stevens) take the responsibility." Stevens, explaining his stand on the issue of alleged security risks, said he did not want to be a party to any unfair suspension based on "meager or almost nonexistent information." He said he feared Gen. Lawton might be moving too fast "without sufficient information."

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower said yesterday he just hopes the whole business of the McCarthy-Pentagon uproar on Capitol Hill will end quickly.

And the President, an old five-star general, shook his head in surprised incredulity when asked at his news conference whether Secretary of Defense Wilson had ever consulted him about the case of Pvt. G. David Schine.

You mean about this private? the President asked, emphasizing the word private.

Then amid laughter, Eisenhower said quickly he never heard of it. Never heard of it, he repeated.

House Refuses To Limit Use Of U.S. Troops

30 American Atomic Cannon Guard Reich

Frankfurt, Germany (AP)—U.S. Army sources said yesterday there are now 30 atomic cannon in West Germany capable of defending a 150-mile Rhine River front against Soviet ground attack.

Five atomic cannon battalions, each equipped with six 280mm guns, now face a potential aggressor. Only three such battalions in Germany were identified until yesterday, when the Army disclosed that it now has five here.

The first such battalion arrived in Germany last October. The others have been shipped here since under tight military security. They are believed to be the only American atomic cannon stationed outside of the United States.

The big 85-ton guns, the world's largest artillery, have a range of 20 miles, an elevation up to 55 degrees and can fire in almost all directions.

Their positions are somewhere west of the Rhine between Coblenz and Karlsruhe. They could hurl atomic shells across the river on enemy targets within minutes after an attack. North of Coblenz the British are responsible for defense.

The guns can be placed and fired faster than any other heavy field artillery piece now in use by the United States. They are transported by front-and-rear engine cars capable of speeds up to 35 miles an hour.

Some of the guns have been test-fired in Germany with conventional shells at an Army firing range in Baumholder, near the French and Luxembourg frontiers.

Where the Army has stockpiled its A-shells is a military secret. The Russians are not known to have atomic artillery, but they have guided missile launching platforms in East Germany from which rockets can be fired into Allied positions west of the Rhine more than 200 miles away.

Seaway Measure Cleared For Vote

Washington (AP)—St. Lawrence Seaway legislation, before Congress in varying forms for more than 20 years, was cleared yesterday for a House vote—probably next Thursday.

The House Rules Committee voted 7-5 to send the bill to the House floor. The Senate passed the measure in January.

The committee directed that the bill, which would authorize the United States to join with Canada in constructing the 27-foot deep waterway, be limited to four hours of debate.

Playground, Swim Pool To Be Built At Effort

Effort—The 200 residents of this small village locked arms this week in a united effort to bring playground facilities to the children. They designated the area as the historical spot where pioneer Conrad Kresge's 12-year-old son was killed by Indians about the mid-1700s.

For the young people as a whole, the announcement is perhaps the best news they've ever had. The playground, also to include a swimming pool, will be the first center for organized play ever founded here.

Assembling this week for organization purposes, the citizenry elected John A. Rinker, a grocer, as their president. They also selected George Gould as vice president; Mrs. Ethel Weiss, secretary, and Harold Everitt, treasurer.

Effort Recreation Center was adopted as the official name of the playground site and the initial action by citizens was to schedule a community picnic for May 29. Proceeds will go toward constructing the swimming pool.

It was during the French and Indian War and the Revolution that the Kresge family began to grow in the West End of Monroe County.

First settler here, Conrad Kresge, was clearing land in a field near the proposed playground site when Indians, history books say, ambushed Kresge's eldest son, John.

A monument to the memory of this young boy, an outstanding architectural memorial design, is located in Gilbert Cemetery.

According to residents here the monument originally was scheduled for placement at the site where the boy met his death. But, they say, the property owner at that time wouldn't accept delivery and the stone was taken to Gilbert.

Sebastian S. Kresge, founder of the nation-wide Kresge Stores, is a direct descendant of Effort's pioneer settler, Conrad Kresge.

The newly organized community association acquired the 250-by-180-foot property from Rinker.

Two years ago a small group formed what they called the Effort Athletic Club, and the growth of this organization is the ultimate result of the newly formed group planning the playground.

As the Athletic Club, members built a backdrop on the Rinker field so the young boys would have a place to play baseball and generally let off some of their excess energy.

Way Clears For Talks On Indochina

By Lynn Heinzerling

Geneva (AP)—East and West appeared to have cleared the way last night for talks on the war in Indochina. Efforts to reach agreement on a formula for Korean unity bogged down in a welter of old and repetitious argument.

While Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was solidly backing Red Chinese and North Korean plans for divided Korea in the conference hall, a French official announced the last obstacle to calling the conference on Indochina appeared to have been surmounted.

Bao Dai, Vietnamese chief of state, has agreed reluctantly after long hesitation to permit Viet Nam representatives to sit at the same conference table with emissaries of the Communist Vietnamese regime now waging bitter war against French Union troops in Indochina, the French official said.

Bao Dai's objections were overcome in talks at Cannes with Marc Jacquet, French minister for relations with Indochina. Jacquet declined to go beyond the statement of official spokesmen that Bao Dai had agreed to a meeting with Vietnamese representatives. It appeared, however, that there were some details still to be ironed out.

The Indochinese conference possibly could get under way next week. It will bring together the Big Four Powers, Red China, the three Associated States of Indochina, Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia, and the Vietnamese representatives.

Molotov had insisted on the inclusion of the Vietnamese. The French had long resisted such an invitation.

The agreement had nothing to do with negotiations to reach a truce at Dien Bien Phu, which have now collapsed. Molotov wanted to bring Vietnamese representatives here to discuss a truce which would permit evacuation of the French wounded from Dien Bien Phu.

Prince Wan Waihayakon, chairman of yesterday's session at the conference in the old league of Nations building here, said he expected the general statements on the Korean question to be completed by Saturday.

This would permit the transfer of the Korean discussions into smaller working groups. If the conference so decided, the Indochinese question could be tackled simultaneously.

Molotov's speech yesterday was notable for one more effort to bring China into a Big Five and his support of the Chinese demand Wednesday for an "Asia for the Asians" program.

The hard-hitting young commander also declared that the parity of the country at the 16th parallel is "militarily unacceptable."

Leaders Seek Resolution Empowering Ike To Act As He Sees Fit In Asian Crisis

By Robert S. Allen

Washington—The Administration is still seeking a joint resolution from Congress that would empower President Eisenhower to take such action as he deems necessary in the Indochina crisis.

That's what Undersecretary of State W. Bedell Smith told a meeting of Republican and Democratic leaders.

Previously, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge gave a group of Senate GOP chiefs assurance that the Administration will not intervene militarily in Red-periled Indochina unless joined by other UN countries.

Undersecretary Smith also informed the bi-partisan meeting: That the Russians are secretly trying to exclude the U. S. from the Geneva discussions on Indochina. The Reds are endeavoring to confine this part of the parity to what they call the "dominant powers of Asia," listing them as Russia, Red China, India, Britain, France, Pakistan and the satellite Vietnam. Excluded are the U. S., Japan, the Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia, and the Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos.

Litts And Rake Awarded $237,819 Contract For Fifth St. Bridge Project

Contract for construction of Fifth St. bridge and 53 of a mile of Broad St., Stroudsburg, was awarded yesterday to Litts and Rake, East Stroudsburg, for $237,819.

The new bridge will be a plate girder structure. The project is from the Ann and Main St. end of the bridge to the intersection of Broad St. and Route 611 at the foot of Foxtown Hill.

The reconstructed bridge and street are both to be 36 feet wide. A crushed bituminous surface will be applied to the road. Curb and gutters will be installed on Broad St., Stroudsburg borough will spend $3,300 to replace some sidewalks, lower manholes to the street grade, move a traffic signal and a water standpipe for firefighting, and construction of a storm water drainage line.

Monroe County will pay $22,000 toward the cost of right-of-way damages and curb and gutter work.

A wide turning lane on the north side of Route 611 starting some distance from the foot of Foxtown Hill and Broad St. is part of the project.

Ike Sees No Ideal Solution In Indochina, Notes Only Congress Can Declare War

By Roger D. Greene

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower said yesterday a practical settlement of the Indo-Chinese War may be possible even though a completely trustworthy peace with the Communists appears to be something over the horizon.

The President told his news conference the most the United States can hope for is to work out a practical way of getting along with the Communists. That is what we have been doing in Europe, he said.

But Eisenhower declared emphatically it would be unacceptable to permit the whole anti-Communist defense of Southeast Asia to crumble and disappear.

The President thus laid new stress on his statement earlier this week that Indochina is "the cork in the bottle" whose loss to the Communists would affect the fate of hundreds of millions in Asia.

Even as Eisenhower reaffirmed the importance of Indochina in the global struggle against Communism, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov strongly endorsed Red China's "Asia for Asians" demand at the 19-nation Geneva conference in Switzerland.

Communist China's Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai had demanded yesterday that all foreign troops withdraw from Asia and leave Asians to settle their own problems.

Touching on a wide range of topics, Eisenhower made these points at his news conference:

One—A congressional proposal designed to bar the dispatch of troops to Indochina or anywhere else in the world without the advance approval of Congress would damage the President's flexibility to cope with emergencies.

Two—The United States will not get into a war except through the constitutional process, involving a declaration of war by Congress.

Three—No British advice or counsel has influenced U. S. decisions in conversations between Washington and London on the question of aid to Indochina.

Farouk's Ex-Wife To Wed Doctor

Cairo, Egypt (AP)—Dr. Adham el Nakib, a 27-year-old Alexandria physician, announced yesterday he and ex-Queen Narriman will be married next month. She is 20.

Nakib is the son of Dr. Ahmed el Nakib, a former favorite of ex-King Farouk. His father is serving a 15-year sentence handed out by Egypt's revolutionary court on charges of corruption under the Farouk regime.

Newspaper reports said that Nakib had agreed to pay Narriman a dowry of 100 Egyptian pounds ($257). If he obtains a divorce, the reports added, he will pay Narriman 1,000 pounds ($2,870).

Upholds Ike's Request For Free Hand

By Russell Brines

Washington (AP)—The House yesterday upheld President Eisenhower's request for a flexible world strategy by beating down, 214-37, a proposal to limit the use of American troops in combat zones.

Then it voted the armed services a post-Korea low of $28,684,250,486 in new money for the year ending in mid-1955. The defense budget, which now goes to the Senate was approved on a rollcall vote of 377 to 0.

The House overwhelmingly defeated an amendment, by Rep. Coudert (R-NY), which would have required prior congressional approval before any of the new money was used to support forces in combat in Indochina or other parts of the world which the United States is not obligated by treaty to defend. The 214-37 vote that beat the Coudert proposal was a standing tally, in which members are not recorded by name.

President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday morning that any artificial restraint on his power to send troops anywhere in the world could not fail to damage his flexibility in trying to protect the United States.

The House changed money items in the bill only by adding $3,543,986 to continue full operation of the Murphy General Hospital at Waltham, Mass. The proposal, by Rep. Donohue (D-Mass.), was approved on a 63-69 standing vote.

The final total was $120,804,514 less than President Eisenhower originally requested. Of this $41 million dollars represented cuts by the House Appropriations Committee, and the balance were book-keeping changes, some of which were volunteered by the services.

The measure earmarks $10,819,310,000 for the Air Force; $9,705,818,500 for the Navy and $7,619,666,986 for the Army.

Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, deputy Democratic leader, sparked an attack by Democrats who raised the question whether the budget is too small. He said "there is some doubt in my mind that the United States is strong enough to repel an attack."

But there was no attempt to restore any major funds, unlike the sharp Democratic fight last year to give the Air Force more money.

Chairman Short (R-Mo) of the Armed Services Committee said "I don't think that the Soviet Union dares attack us today." He added that "we're as strong as our economy will allow us to be."

Taxpayers, School Leaders Cooperate To Make Jointure Function Smoothly

By Robert Staph

Newfoundland—The school jointure agreement of 1925 between Greene and Dreher Townships was written to "stick." Either by chance or intent, the agreement contained neither an expiration date nor did it provide means for dissolving the merger.

It continued in effect unaltered for 26 years. In 1951, a resolution wiped it off the books and in its place a third agreement was signed taking in another district, Sterling.

Although its administrative set-up remained static during the 1925-1951 period, the Greene-Dreher system was not devoid of growth during those years. As a matter of fact, the additions to the physical plant and the improvement in facilities during the period, particularly during the depression years, were notable.

Dr. Arthur J. Simons' position of leadership was taken over by two men who displayed the same interest in the advancement of education that the good doctor had. They were the late Frank A. Madden, who served as president of the Joint Board from 1925 to 1949, and Homer L. Gilpin, who served as treasurer for a like period and is presently serving his fifth year as president of both the Dreher Township and Joint boards.

The German Valley and Roemer, one-room schools were discontinued in 1931 and 1932, completing the consolidation of all schools in the two districts. The addition of these students plus those acquired by the natural growth of the area was again taxing the school plant. In addition, auditorium - gymnasium facilities had never been available on the school premises, a community hall and later a dance hall and theater having been used for athletic contests and other assemblies.

School authorities saw a solution in 1935 and, although still in debt as a result of the 1925 building program, were quick to seize the opportunity. Federal funds were available for school purposes and would cover 45 per cent of the costs of certain type structures.

The following Summer saw the completion of a combination gymnasium, two additional classrooms and office space at a cost of $52,000. The classrooms housed the home economics department and a laboratory, two departments which had been operating in cramped and highly unsatisfactory quarters for a number of years.

The vocational agriculture department, which also had been carrying on in make-shift quarters for far too many years, was moved into a new building in late 1944. Constructed at a cost of over $25,000, the building provided adequate space and equipment for manual training and farm shop instruction.

The final jointure, Greene-Dreher-Sterling, had its beginning as early as 1947. Early that year, the Greene-Dreher board invited both Sterling and Lehigh (Gouldsboro) townships to sit down and discuss the possibility of enlarging the merger. Lehigh, operating an elementary school and a two-year high school, was not interested, although only a year later that district closed its high school and arranged to have secondary students attend Greene-Dreher on a tuition basis.

Sterling directors showed more interest but a suitable arrangement could not be made after three meetings at which the issue was discussed. They decided, however, to close their elementary school and three-year high school at the close of the 1946-47 term and transport their children here as tuition pupils.

As a tuition-paying district, Sterling's directors had no voice in the affairs of the school. The new district's parents were active participants in the Parent-Teachers Association and were avidly interested in the school's activities—the school band, athletic teams, other musical groups, social events.

Changes in 1951 in the method of computing tuition rates which made it financially expedient for Sterling to join with Greene-Dreher, and the continuing good relations between Sterling and the host districts, finally resulted in the three-township agreement now in force. The contracts were signed on Sept. 14, 1951, to remain in effect until such time that any of the member boards, by a majority vote, desires to withdraw.

The school has operated for a number of years under the 6-3-3 plan—elementary school, junior high school and senior high school. Joseph Jacobs, who came here in 1919 as vocational agriculture instructor and principal and who played an important part in the 1925 jointure, has been supervising principal for the past five years. He moved to the principalship of Hawley High school in 1929 and served as assistant county superintendent in Wayne County before returning to Greene-Dreher in 1949. Richard McLain is principal of the elementary school.

Many of the school's extra-curricular activities were among the "firsts and near-firsts" in the State. The local chapter of the Future Farmers of America has sponsored a father-son banquet for 26 years—it was the first of its kind in Pennsylvania and has become a widely copied event for other FFA groups.

A school band was organized as early as 1924 and, although it was to exist for only six years, it was also a "first" in northeastern Pennsylvania. The band has since been reorganized and today numbers over 60 pieces. A junior band, made up of 35 pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, was also organized a few years ago.

It is interesting to note that the Greene-Dreher Fair, which will be staged for the 38th time in August, had its humble beginning in the school during the 1915-1916 term. Initially an exhibition of the school and project work, the entry list was opened to residents of Greene, Dreher, Sterling and Lehigh townships in 1920 and the administration of the three day event was turned over to a community organization.

One of the highlights of the school year is the annual May Day observance which is sponsored by the school's chapter of the Tri-Hi-Y. A queen is chosen in a school-wide election; she, in turn, chooses her attendants and court and is crowned in an elaborate coronation ceremony. This has been a "standing room only" event at the school since its inception.

Greene - Dreher - Sterling's hot lunch program, sponsored jointly by the home economics department and the Parent-Teachers' Association has been a model for other schools of Wayne and Pike counties. Served in a modern cafeteria, the program provides a noon meal for students at a very nominal figure.

Fifteen directors comprise the Greene - Dreher - Sterling Joint board—five from each of the member districts. Homer L. Gilpin, Dreher, is president; Harold Lee, Sterling, is vice president; Lawrence Grimm, Greene, is secretary and J. Robert Burdick, Dreher, is treasurer.

Other members are: Dreher—Adam S. Hahn, William Evans, Robert J. Staph; Greene—Edward S. Parsons, Fred Schoenagel, Fred Hart, Frank Hackman; Sterling—Dr. Robert F. Rochfort, Elmer McLain, Rudolph Brodowsky, Louis Altemier.

The success of the jointure plan here has been the result of the cooperative effort of the taxpayers of the districts involved plus intelligent, forward-looking leadership.

Economic Chief Optimistic But Still Cautious

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower's top economic adviser, Dr. Arthur Burns, has told the nation's state governors the current "business contraction" is one of the least serious in history and he was most hopeful for the future.

Burns, chairman of Eisenhower's Economic Advisory Council, said however, the administration is busy rounding up an emergency public works program and a new tax cut plan for use in case the economic picture worsens instead of improves.

No details of possible further tax cut recommendations were given, but higher income tax exemptions have been suggested as one way of raising consumer purchasing power. Eisenhower has expressed belief that conditions will straighten out without invoking any emergency plans.

Three Bangor Students At Forensics

Bangor — Three Bangor High School pupils are participating this week in the State finals of the Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League being held at Williamsport. Those competing are Donald B. Keat Jr., saxophone soloist; Warren Bonney, bass vocal soloist; and George Lakey, extemporaneous speaking.

These pupils will be among the 4,000 high school students competing in 81 speech and music contests during the three-day session, April 29, 30 and May 1. Some 118 Pennsylvania high schools will be entered in the competition.

Directors Of Hospital Map Long-Range Expansion Program

Larger Building, Adding Nurses' Home And Training School Weighed By Board

General Hospital directors have begun the initial stages of a long-range plan leading to eventual expansion of hospital facilities.

Under terms of the preliminary study, expansion of the present hospital would provide three major benefits.

First: Directors feel that, in a few years, the hospital should be increased to a 185 or 200-bed building. It now has space for about 100 beds.

Second: They hope that, eventually, the hospital will be able to build a nurses' home.

Third: Partly because of this additional living space, the hospital will be able to set up its own nurses' training school.

According to Frank S. LaBar, president of the board of directors, nothing definite has been evolved on any of the plans. What the board is trying to do, LaBar said last night, is to "set up a working plan covering a period of several years."

This plan, LaBar indicated, would be similar to that evolved by hospital leaders in 1941-42. The early plan led to construction of the present, improved, hospital plant.

Up to the present time, the board's study of possible expansion has centered largely upon definite need for such enlargement. This need has been pointed out by both directors and members of the hospital staff, all of whom have a practical knowledge of space limitations, overcrowding and difficulty in finding sufficient nurses for the regular staff.

Exploring the present situation, the board has also attempted to discover for itself the feasibility of undertaking expansion in the future. To do this its building committee, headed by J. H. Stofflet, has investigated the essentials of land owned by the hospital, space needed for the nurses' home, and potential location of the building. There are some other board findings:

To provide adequate housing for the nurses needed by the hospital, a building to house 50 women would be necessary. About 30 of these would be student nurses enrolled in the hospital's training program.

At present, because of lack of proper housing facilities, the hospital depends almost entirely upon married women now living in the community. These women have complete nurse's training and are certificated, according to Harry Smith, hospital superintendent.

The only reason they are now available for employment by the hospital, Smith says, is that they and their families live within the community. To take care of nursing requirements, an available pool of nursing employees is needed.

Improvement of housing would very likely result in creation of a more attractive selling point in the hiring of new nurses, board members feel.

To give directors a practical idea of additional space needed for the expansion, architect Murrel Kiefer recently constructed a scale model for the nurses' home and a proposed addition to the hospital plant. These scale models have provided a more thorough idea of possible placement of such structures.

The need for expansion of the present hospital plant is not an entirely new one, officials said. Hospital directors have realized, almost since the present plant was completed, that, in a matter of years, more facilities and beds would be necessary, board officials noted.

One of the reasons for this is readily apparent from a study of the existing hospital space following completion of the large new building, Smith says.

When the new building was opened in May, 1952 many Monroe County residents believed that more beds had been made available.

This supposition, Smith says, is not entirely true. To begin with, the superintendent continues, the enlarged hospital building merely superseded the old hospital and the Rosenkrans hospital combined.

The Rosenkrans hospital had been closed. The 40 beds formerly housed in that structure were, therefore, "lost." Discounting this total, the new hospital building added only about five or ten beds to the available supply when both the old General Hospital and Rosenkrans buildings were in operation.

"In a long range program, such as the one now being evolved by directors, the ideal situation would be to have a nurses home, large enough to house student nurses taking a nurse's training program originated and staffed by the hospital," Smith points out.

"Right now we're almost entirely dependent on graduate registered nurses to the extent that we have to depend largely on married girls in our own community who have had complete nursing training," the superintendent continues.

"One of our ultimate goals is to establish a student nursing program," Smith says. "This program would have to be acceptable to State officials. It would enable girls who wish to take nursing to go to school right here in our own community."

On completion of the training program, the student nurses would become registered nurses on passing the required State examinations.

This student nursing program would actually be an extension of some facilities already offered of the hospital, officials said.

It now has a training program for technicians in its radiology or X-ray department. There are now three women and one man enrolled in this training program, Smith said.

In addition to the drastic need for nurses and a nursing school, the greatest reason for expansion of the present hospital plant is a basically simple one, Smith says.

The reason: Now—and for the past two years—the hospital has been badly overcrowded.

"A great deal of the time now we are overcrowded," Smith relates. "We have to use rooms as bedrooms which were never intended for that use. We are now using the west solarium almost constantly, with four or five beds placed there most of the time."

To help take care of rising space requirements, the hospital has also been forced to press into use the east solarium, Smith indicates. Both rooms were intended as sun rooms for ambulatory patients; neither was designed to house a bed patient.

There are several contributing factors to the increase in the number of patients taken in each year by the hospital, Smith feels. Chief among these is the advent of hospitalization insurance and the increased use of anti-biotics and other medicines which require controlled supervision of the patient during usage.

Whatever the reason, the hospital's daily patient load has risen drastically in recent years. Today the hospital averages more than 100 patients per day in a 100-bed plant.

Hospital records are kept on the basis of a year beginning on June 1 in one year and ending on May 31 the following year. Here are some of the statistics for the past five years.

For the year ending on May 31 in 1949 the hospital cared for an average 67 patients per day. In 1949-50, the average jumped to 70 patients per day. In 1950-51 the patient load rose to 74 per day. All three totals were registered in the old hospital building, before expansion.

For the year ending on May 31, 1952—including only two weeks in the new addition—the total patient load had risen to 95 patients average per day.

During the year covering June 1, 1952 to May 31, 1953 an average total of 101 patients were received for each day of the year.

The current year bids fair to break last year's record total. From June 1, 1953 to March 31, 1954 an average total of 107 patients per day have been received as in-patients by the hospital. The figure is seven more than the hospital's available 100-bed normal facilities.

Contrary to a common supposition, the birth rate has had surprisingly little to do with this rise in patient-days at the hospital.

Largest increases have been noted in the number of days required for treatment of medical or surgical cases, Smith indicates.

The number of patient-days required for treatment of new born babies has increased but little. In 1949 the total days required were 4,254. This total sank to 4,000 in 1950 and decreased again to 3,617 days in the year ending May 31, 1951.

A sharp rise was noted for the year ending in 1952 when 4,510 newborn days were recorded.

The number of births, meanwhile, has risen less, by comparison, than the total number of in-patients received for medical or surgical requirements.

During the year ending May 31, 1952 a total of 736 births were recorded by the hospital. The total rose to 771 for the year ending May 31, 1953.

So far this year (as of the end of March) a total of 651 children have been born in the hospital. With two months still to go to the hospital record-year, the total will "probably exceed 700" Smith believes.

But at the same time, the total number of days required for hospitalization of maternity cases has dropped steadily. Where most mothers and newborn babies required hospital treatment for nine days or more, the current trend is toward lower hospitalization totals.

Many mothers and their babies are now released from the hospital in less than a week. The average time spent in the hospital is about five days.

Although no estimates of the cost of expansion to the present hospital plant can yet be made, hospital directors are in agreement on the fact that the current study is largely for information only.

At present, they indicate, the board must attempt to study every available facet of the space needed by the plant. This study may require several years.

When it is completed, however, the board hopes that it will have worked out a thorough and workable plan for expansion which will serve community needs without overcrowding or understaffing for many years to come.

New Information Received In False Fire Alarm Case

East Stroudsburg borough police are continuing their investigation of the "false fire alarm" case on the strength of "new and more complete" information, according to Officer Travis Seese.

The false alarms were turned in early Monday morning, February 15. Four young men were arrested by borough police that same day.

Picked up by police were William Schoonover, 22 of Stroudsburg RD 1; James Reynolds, 30 of 428 Birch St., East Stroudsburg; Eugene Van Horn, 18, 45 E. Broad St., East Stroudsburg, and David Miller, 19 of 28 N. Fifth St., Stroudsburg.

Schoonover and Reynolds denied taking part in turning the alarms in. Miller and Van Horn admitted turning in alarms; implicated both other men.

New information collected during the past two weeks has added substantially to the case, Seese said.

Reynolds has since been implicated by two county jail prisoners in their attempted jailbreak. Schoonover was back in jail this week on a charge of burglary.

Major May Adam, Salvation Army official formerly stationed here and now with the Scranton organization, officiated. Interment was made in Stroudsburg Cemetery.

Mrs. Obitz Treated For Ankle Break

A Shawnee woman who slipped in a puddle of water was treated in the General Hospital dispensary Wednesday for a fractured left ankle. Injured woman, released after treatment, is Mrs. Helen Obitz.

Three persons were treated and released on Tuesday. They were Robert Maxwell, of Scranton, who bruised his left shoulder; William Frouboes, 508 Scott St., Stroudsburg, and Patricia Sypek, East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

Maxwell told hospital authorities the car he was driving left Route 290 near Canadensis and crashed into some trees.

Frouboes fell on concrete paving, cutting his nose and suffering contusions and abrasions of both hands and both knees and his left wrist.

Mrs. Sypek fractured her left index finger playing softball at the college.

League Given Report On Water Firm

Tobyhanna Civic League members heard a report from a one-man committee last night which said the local water company franchise could be bought for $10,000.

Frank Tuckey, league member, said he discussed the water situation with John Staph, president of the Tobyhanna Water Co. in Harrisburg.

During their meeting, Tuckey said Staph told him he (the owner) would not repair or replace corroded water mains in Tobyhanna. Complaints by residents center on the fact that old water mains do not carry water properly to their houses.

At present a league protest against the situation is being prepared by an attorney, officials said. The protest will be filed with the Pennsylvania Utilities Commission in Harrisburg.

At a meeting last Sept. 24, a PUC engineer, J. B. Manderville, recommended three alternatives in the league's battle for better water supplies in Tobyhanna.

Said Manderville: The league should (1) form a water authority to take over the private franchise or (2) raise taxes for the township in order to buy the water company or (3) let a group of private citizens buy the company.

At last night's meeting, the league elected officers for the year. Joseph Rice was renamed president; John Pope, vice president; Boyd Frutchey, financial secretary; Betty Leonard, recording secretary and Winifred Scanlon, treasurer. The league heard a talk by Dr. Orlo G. McCoy, representing the State Medical Society, who outlined methods for attracting a general practice physician to the area.

League members decided to prepare a brochure showing the community's new Wherry housing program and listing medical needs. The booklet would be passed out to graduates of medical schools, officials said.

Clean-Up Campaign Launched

The Stroudsburg's clean-up, paint-up campaign got under way yesterday in both boroughs with municipal trucks removing all sorts of refuse—except garbage—placed at curb lines by residents.

Francis Brodhead, Stroudsburg street superintendent, said borough trucks will operate this morning and again Saturday morning.

In East Stroudsburg the pickup is carried out on the regular schedule used for other collects, but with borough trucks operating.

Most property owners who are cooperating in the clean-up campaign had their refuse out yesterday. It should be in boxes or other containers.

This service is offered by the borough councils of the two boroughs without charge to the residents.

Routes 611, 6 Projects Urged By Pike Group

Milford — Reconstruction of Route 6 through Pike County and widening of Route 611 from Philadelphia to Monroe County into a dual highway are sought by the Pike County Association.

Officers and directors of the business-resort group in Pike County adopted two resolutions recently on these matters. They have been submitted to the Secretary of Highways and other high state officials.

The request involving Route 611 sets forth that it should be made into a dual highway from Metropolitan Philadelphia to northeastern Pennsylvania by "using the entire length of the Delaware River canal," and other right-of-way.

The association cites "the difficulty of safe and convenient travel" from Philadelphia to northeastern Pennsylvania, "particularly to Pike County" over the winding, two-lane highway.

Directors emphasized in their appeal that Pike County "has no route."

Route 6, the organization advises, "is a heavily traveled route connecting many centers of transportation. It is of incalculable necessity to the welfare of this area and its development, and is now inadequate to handle the traffic now using it."

The association wants the highway widened, rebuilt and generally improved to meet traffic demands.

Odds Favor Eisenhower To Make Bid For Second Presidential Term In '56

By Franklin Johnson
Central Press Correspondent
Washington — The odds seem to be all in favor of President Eisenhower running again in 1956. Already this is a burning topic for speculation here among the political soothsayers who are shaping the slogans for the current congressional campaign.

It may continue as a tantalizing question right up to the eve of the nominating convention, but in the opinion of the really long-headed experts, the question is virtually settled now.

They grant that the President may still have his own doubts as to whether he will try to succeed himself for another four years in the White House, as indicated by the remodeling he is having done on his farm in Pennsylvania near Gettysburg.

Like George Washington, who continually refurbished his beloved Mount Vernon while he longed to return there at the earliest possible moment, Mr. Eisenhower may yearn for retirement. After all, he has seen all the pomp and circumstance that any one man could desire.

Almost all the dependable signs point, however, to his running again. Whether he really wants to or not. For that matter, like seems to be enjoying the job more than he did at first. This is typical, because the presidency has a way of growing on the men who occupy it.

Only two presidents in all history really have declined to stand for a second term—Rutherford B. Hayes, who in 1881 quietly retired to his home at Fremont, O., where he died 12 years later, and James K. Polk, who after having the entire experience of his entire platform being enacted by Congress, purposefully returned to Tennessee in 1849 where he had only three months to live.

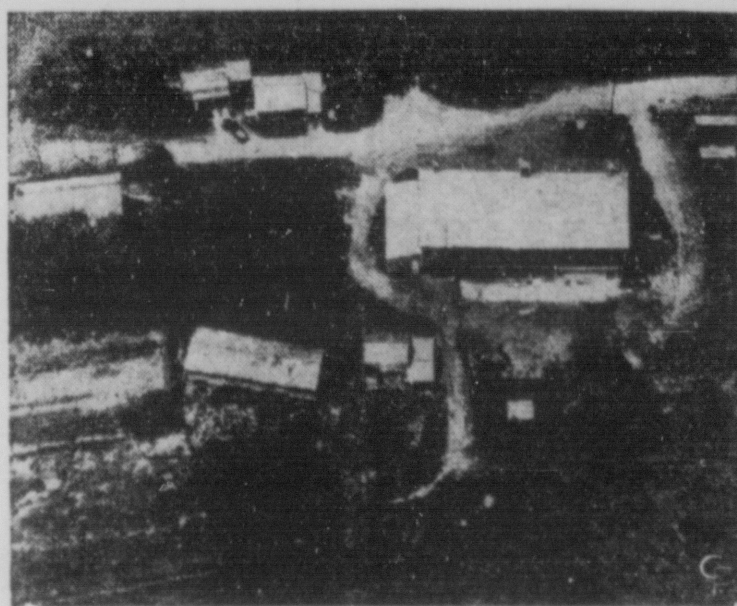

All the rest have been "available" for a second term, although fate played a strange trick on the Republicans, who have governed for 58 years between its founding in 1854 and 1954. Yet all its presidents except Abraham Lincoln, Ulysses S. Grant and William McKinley for one reason or another were held to a single term. Lincoln and McKinley did not serve out their second terms, both falling victim to assassins' bullets.

Those who argue that it is a foregone conclusion that Mr. Eisenhower will run again, contend that only an utter collapse of his program could prevent it, and that this has not occurred.

His health and age loom as no barrier to another campaign and term. He will be 66 one month before the 1956 election and one of the oldest to run for the office, but his robust health indicates that he could take it.

If he cannot be said to dote on the arduous job, it also cannot be said that it pulls upon him. Accustomed to top command posts much of his life, he does not wince from exercising executive authority.

No Mr. Eisenhower stands more apart than ever. It is also pointed out that Ike's temperament is to see a thing through, and he is almost certain to have unfinished parts of his program in 1956, no matter how well things go between now and then.

Aerial view of the Eisenhower farm near Gettysburg, Pa.

The Eisenhowers are adjusting themselves well to the necessary annoyances of living in a perpetual goldfish bowl of public scrutiny under constant guard by the ever-vigilant Secret Service.

Besides, who else looms on the horizon as a GOP nominee? To a remarkable degree, his chief rivals in 1952 have been winnowed out. His final contender down the convention stretch to the finish line, Senator Robert A. Taft, has died.

Douglas MacArthur's age all but eliminates him. Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey, Theodore McKeldin of Maryland, and John S. Fine of Pennsylvania, who helped the Eisenhower boom and were dark horses if it had stalled, have all run into stormy political seas at home which at least muddy the waters of their future candidacy.

California's Earl Warren has become chief justice of the Supreme Court, and Harold Stassen may have long since passed the peak of his political star's ascendancy, that leaves New York's perennial, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey who is on record that he believes firmly that Eisenhower will run again.

Newcomers seem few and far between. Boomlets are heard now and then for Gov. William G. Stratton and Senator Everett Dirksen, both of Illinois; Senators William E. Jenner or Homer Capehart of Indiana; Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin, and of course, Vice President Richard Nixon.

If Senator Homer Ferguson should win re-election next fall in Michigan by a thumping margin he might loom as a possibility. Two likely governors, J. Bracken Lee of Utah and Howard Pyle of Arizona, are in states with smaller electoral votes.

No Mr. Eisenhower stands more apart than ever. It is also pointed out that Ike's temperament is to see a thing through, and he is almost certain to have unfinished parts of his program in 1956, no matter how well things go between now and then.

Hadassah Is Told About Israelites

The annual donor dinner of Stroudsburg Chapter, Order of Hadassah, held at Temple Israel Wednesday night, was featured by the address of Mrs. Helen Kittner, of Israel, now studying in this country. There were about 60 in attendance.

Preceding the dinner, a cocktail party was held at the home of Mrs. Leo Feinsilber, Wallace St., Stroudsburg, Hadassah president. At its conclusion, the guests repaired to the temple for the dinner.

Mrs. Martin R. Ellsweig, program chairman, presented the speaker. Mrs. Kittner spoke on the subject, "The Problems of Establishing a True Democracy in Israel."

Mrs. Kittner, native of Berlin, Germany, was reared in Switzerland and went to Israel in 1934 where she attracted the attention of Henrietta Szold, founder of Hadassah. When the Alice Seligsberg vocational high school was formed, Mrs. Kittner was chosen as principal and director of vocational education.

Mrs. Kittner told of the many problems in forming a democracy in Israel, due to the fact the population has tripled many times, she said, bringing in people from many nations with fixed opinions and the like.

The speaker was lavish in her praise of Americans generally, their understanding and loyalty to their country, which she said greatly impressed her.

At the conclusion of the dinner, Mrs. Karen K. Roth entertained with vocal numbers and dances, with Gene Schiller her accompanist.

Mrs. Feinsilber presented a plaque to Mrs. H. Greenberg in recognition of her 10 years faithful service in Hadassah.

Mrs. Morris Laveton was chairman of hostesses for the dinner, assisted by Mrs. Sol Silverman. Mrs. Seymour Katz was in charge of the floral arrangements which were very attractive.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Two banquets in one day satisfy even me—particularly with steak at noon and lobster at night. Add the fact that they were both bowling banquets, so that I could sit and eat with never a note to take or a pencil to drop on the floor, and you have bliss indeed.

Actually, however, taking notes is never a chore for me since it sort of serves to focus attention on what the speaker is saying. Every speaker, no matter how tedious, usually has something important to say, but without the need to report on it, you're apt to let your mind wander and miss it all together.

But one thing is peculiar about that—the part of a speech that the ordinary person enjoys most is just so much lost time as far as the story is concerned. Looking over the notes on a meeting, you'd find that, as a rule, they begin with doodles of various and sundry geometrical and curved lines—that's where the speaker was warming up his audience with jokes.

A little further on you'll find more doodles where he illustrated his point with an apt story. Those are the places where people laugh—and a reporter doodles.

However, when there's no pressure of a deadline, no pondering when the speaker's going to get to the point, even a reporter will agree that the laughter is the best part of a meeting.

GOOD EVENING!

One of the several places one can go for an enjoyable evening outside of Stroudsburg is ONAWA LODGE, on Route No. 90, in Mountainhome, only 16 easy driving miles from the Boroughs.

Get away from the "usual routine" and benefit from a cool evening with friends in a congenial atmosphere. Dinner is served daily between 6:30 and 7:30 P.M. (D.S.T.). An attractive Cocktail Hour, featuring special canapés, begins at 5:30 P.M. (Bar is closed on Sundays.) A choice of entrees is provided and reservations for Dinner are suggested but not a requisite. Further information may be obtained by calling Cresco 3311.

We firmly believe that you will tell your friends about the nice time you had at ONAWA LODGE. The Pocono Playhouse will not open until later on, but after Dinner you might enjoy seeing the scheduled motion pictures at nearby Buck Hill (usually Mon.-Wed.-Fri.-Sat.) Enjoy an evening "away from town" at a nominal expense. We invite you to join our guests for cocktails and a wonderful dinner.

Come on up and bring your friends. Enjoy a different "night out."

National Hardware Week and National Baby Week apparently fall simultaneously, and so we find Theona Gordon promoting diapers, rattles, baby oils, teething rings and bassinets at the same time Sears is promoting hammers, saws, files and wrenches. One might almost say that right now we're going about our business tooth and nail . . . The Peter Wyckoff baby proved himself a potential promoter by arriving just in time for Baby Week. A healthy, robust six pounder he's to be named David Holt, in honor of the two grandfathers . . . Probably our youngest customer of yesterday was the infant—not much longer than my letter opener—who was carried in to the store as I returned from the Wyckoff broadcast. Our store has always enjoyed catering to the "carriage trade," so this little one was assured a royal welcome . . . Walking through the Teens department these days we're reminded of the lines, "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may." The manufacturer of our newly arrived terry cloth beach robes has certainly gathered rosebuds galore for the young miss who is as lovely as springtime. The rosebuds robes are long and priced at $8.98. Terry cloth shorts in solid color, or in white with stripes, degradation of red or blue are $8.98. Peaches for the beaches . . . I love picnic tables, and think one would be very practical in the kitchen. Right now my eye is on a redwood beauty with matching benches down in our Sears furniture department. It seems almost too nice for a yard or patio. Set it for yourself and you'll agree it's a solid hit . . . Helen Mitchell, just back from a Virginia vacation, tells us she had a wonderful time, and visited several of the historic mansions now open to the public. They looked pretty grand too, even when compared with the castles Helen visited in Europe last year . . .

Wonder if I've mentioned lately how business has boomed in our dress department? We're carrying some excellent labels on our racks right now, in a wide range of colors and sizes. Incidentally, I've had compliments galore on the blue spun rayon I picked out a few days ago, and just guess the price! $8.95. Our silk shantungs and cottons are extra-special too, so do come in and look around . . . These are the days when you drift back into the receiving room at every possible opportunity to see the incoming merchandise. There are piles of rugs, dozens of ash trays, and assorted novelties from Italy—sad-faced ceramic horses drawing carts to be filled with flowers; big gourd-shaped bowls just perfect for salads. You'll also see, from time to time, the latest in gloves, lingerie and cosmetics. Just recently we received dozens of bottles of a new, lovely pink liquid smelling deliciously of Chantilly. This is Houbigant's "Body Tone"—a toiletry which the company hails jubilantly as their exclusive "first." "Body Tone" is not the usual type of sticky lotion nor is it a cologne. It's a new, specialized preparation that soothes, refreshes, and cools the skin, and actually banishes dryness and tightness. Every woman who appreciates good grooming will welcome this product, and it will be a particular favorite with those confined to the sick bed. Looking back to the star-struck days of Sweet Sixteen, I'm inclined to say that this is the greatest Tone since Franchot! . . . Aside to Adelaide Gariss and Beatrice Gorgy: We're still missing you, and hope to see you soon. The only recognized illness this time of year is Spring Fever, didn't you know?

Miss Wilson's Painting Wins Show Honors

A watercolor by Barbara Ann Wilson, Canadensis, was named one of the five best paintings in the Everhart Museum juried art show in Scranton this week.

Ten other Monroe County artists were also honored by the jury which selected outstanding entries from among more than 100 submitted by artists in the Scranton area.

Among the other local artists were Carrol Churchill Cartwright, Minisink Hills, Henry S. Evans, East Stroudsburg, Dave Harrison, Minisink Hills, Carla Holmgren, Stroudsburg; J. Havard Macpherson, Bushkill; Peter Mendler, Stroudsburg; G. Francis Meredith, Stroudsburg; Sterling Strauser, East Stroudsburg; Gayne Lennon, Mount Pocono and Val Robinson, Saylorsburg.

Miss Wilson's entry was titled "Drying Fish Nets on Juanito." It is a product of a period during which she was doing post-graduate study in designing in Mexico and uses a Mexican locale for its theme. It has been purchased by the museum for its permanent collection.

She is the 25-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon T. Wilson of Canadensis. Mr. Wilson is the inventor of a solar heat system which is now in use at the Wilson home and which was described in a Daily Record article by Pete O'wyler two years ago.

Miss Wilson attended the Parsons School of Design in New York City. Following graduation from that school she enrolled in Summer courses at the Yale University School of Fine Arts.

From Yale she completed several months of study in Mexico. During the final year of her study there she received a scholarship for outstanding creative work.

In all of her educational work she has majored in textile design, a field in which she is now "free lancing" at home. She has held three one-woman exhibits in this area.

Fond of watercolor as a painting medium, she also works with oils now and then. Her appreciation of some modern artists is low. She feels that Picasso, for example, is an excellent craftsman, but tries "to put stuff over on the public in awhile."

Among her favorite painters are the French impressionists, including Degas, Cezanne, Manet and the leader of "modern" techniques, Vincent Van Gogh.

At present Miss Wilson is concentrating on commercial design for such varied articles as napkins, lamps, wrapping papers and wall-paper. She works on a purely "free lance" basis; does not have contracts with any specific company; hopes eventually to be able Bangor—Exchange Club members changed pastors in mid-talk and never even knew it.

The joke was played on listeners after installation of officers at the Blue Valley Farm Show building Wednesday.

Rev. C. Harry Kehm of First Reformed Church of Allentown was guest speaker. He began his talk, but was called away in the middle by a "telephone call."

But it was the pastor's identical twin, Rev. J. Paul Kehm of Reformed Church in Fleetwood, who returned to the platform to continue the talk.

It wasn't until the end of the talk that the laughing pastors confronted Exchangeites side by side. Willis Gardner was installed as president for the ensuing year by District Governor Samuel Hicks of Bangor.

Hicks also installed the following officers: Eugene Mohn, vice president; Millard Gleim, secretary; Earl Kressler, treasurer; and Harvey J. Miller, chaplain. Also inducted as members of the Board of Control were George Ott Sr., Raymond Traves and Alan Ryder.

Retiring President John Metzgar was presented a past president's pin. Marvin DePamphilis served as toastmaster.

Entertainment was provided by an instrumental quartet, "The Trumpeters," consisting of Robert Emerick, Larry Yetter, Curtis Tucker and Barry Reimer, and an organ solo by Mrs. Shirley Good.

Stolen Auto Crashes; Five Youths Held

Delaware Water Gap — Five boys who told New Jersey State police they were running away from their Orange, N. J. homes were taken into custody on the New Jersey side of the new bridge here this week after crashing a vehicle into a concrete island, police reported.

The youths, ranging in age from 14 to 16, were taken to Belvidere juvenile headquarters Tuesday night after bridge police reported the accident to New Jersey authorities.

State police learned in their investigation that the 1940-model car the youths were in was reported stolen Tuesday night from an Orange parking lot. Car owner was identified as Stephen Rella.

According to troopers the boys said they were going to Scranton to visit friends when a tire blew out on the car. Three of the boys, police said, tried unsuccessfully to climb a cliff on the wooded mountainside.

A fourth got away but was captured Wednesday morning as he walked along the highway, officials reported. Police said his clothing was wet, having spent the night in the rain.

Yesterday the youths were turned over to Orange juvenile authorities.

Playground To Be Built

Later they purchased swings and sliding boards which now will be moved to the new site. Here, too, will be placed picnic tables in a grove and beach equipment for the swimming pool.

The pool is well under excavation by Herbert Gower. Members haven't decided yet, however, what type base they will use.

The pool, 100 by 50-feet will be 18-inches deep at the north end where young tots will wade, and seven feet deep at the south end where a diving board will be placed and the more experienced swimmers will habitat.

Water will reach the pool by pipe and filter system from a tributary of Pohopoko Creek. Approval of this installation is being cleared through the Department of Health.

If all goes well, and there's no apparent reason at this time why it shouldn't, the youngsters of Effort will be knee-deep in water this Summer. Their parents, knee-deep in volunteer work as supervisors, will gain even more pleasure from the project than their children, officials believe.

Stroudsburg Entertains Slatington At Giffels Field Today

Shuster To Oppose Nissen On Mound

Stroudsburg High school makes its initial baseball appearance of the campaign at Gordon Giffels field today, when the Mountaineers play host to Slatington, at 4 p.m.

Slatington is currently coasting along with a mark of two victories and no setbacks. Stroudsburg at the present time owns one victory and is without defeat.

The Slaters are shooting for their second straight diamond title, to add to their basketball laurels won last winter.

Stroudsburg opened the campaign with a 2-1 nod over Palmerston, while Slatington took the measure of both Lehigh and Palmerston and is currently deadlocked with Whitehall for first place in the standings.

Slatington opened the campaign with a 5-4 decision over Lehigh and followed up with a 5-2 win over Palmerston on Tuesday of this week.

Dick Nissen pitched a three-hitter against Palmerston for Slatington, while Stroudsburg's captain, Dick Shuster, halted the same Palmerston club on four hits last week.

Nissen and Shuster are expected to match pitching ability at Giffels field today.

Lineup

The remainder of the Stroudsburg lineup will feature Dave Nevil on first base; Paul "Doc" Lim, second base; Karl Weingartner, shortstop; Dick "Pickles" Hintz, third base; LeRoy Buskirk, left field; Howard Miller, center field; Bill Carson, or Don "Ockle" Setzer, right field, and Dick Campetto in the catching role.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis is hopeful that the Mountaineers can break out with a rash of base hits today. Lim, who lashed out two singles and a homer, accounted for all the Stroudsburg hits against Palmerston last week.

Stroudsburg was scheduled to play Whitehall this week, but the contest was rained out both Tuesday and Wednesday. It has been rescheduled for next Monday.

Patton Advances In Tourney

Pinehurst, N. C. (AP)—Billy Joe Scrambler, shot two-under-par golf of Memphis, Tenn., six and five, and North and South Amateur golf tournament.

Today the 32-year-old Morgan, N. C., lumberman who finished third in the Masters tournament at Augusta, Ga., and followed up that achievement with a round with President Eisenhower, will meet William Hyndman of Abington, Pa. Hyndman, a 38-year-old insurance agency operator, gained the semifinals for the second successive year by routing William Lock of Scarsdale, N. Y., six and five, without the loss of a hole. He was one over par.

Once Again
Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, unsuccessfully seeking the title for the last 25 years, was thwarted again yesterday as Alex Welsh, 34, Rockford, Ill., lawyer, took a grimly contested 1-up decision. His opponent over 18 holes today, will be Frank Meacham.

Warriors Defeat Scranton In Track East Stroudsburg To Invade Nazareth In Lehigh-Northampton League Baseball Tilt

East Stroudsburg and Nazareth High schools will clash in a Lehigh-Northampton League baseball game on the latter's home field today, at 4 p.m. It will be the second outing of the current campaign for the Cavaliers' and the Lewis for Nazareth.

Levis R. Hastie, faculty athletic manager at East Stroudsburg High, announced last night that the two schools had decided on today's date yesterday. The rival schools had been undecided as to whether to play today or Tuesday, May 25. They finally decided on today.

Nazareth has scored two victories in as many outings thus far this season, the second being a 3-2 verdict over Bangor yesterday.

East Stroudsburg has been to the post only one time this season and came up with a 7-3 verdict over Parkland on that occasion.

Coach Jack Kist will be with the services of Bill Pensyl at first base for today's game and has named John Myra to take over the gateway job for East Stroudsburg.

The remainder of the infield will feature Dick Gray on second base; Harold White, shortstop; Gene Plaza, third base, and Bob "Booster" Miller doing the catching. The outfield will have Bob "Red" Kupiszewski in left field; Don Herman, center, and Charley "Snooky" Litts, right.

Bill Sommers, hard working right hander, will again handle the pitching chores for the Cavaliers.

East Stroudsburg's next game, after today, is against Pen Argyl, at East Stroudsburg Playground. The contest will be played next Tuesday, at 4 p.m.

Giordano Wins Verdict

Newark, N. J. (AP)—Ralph Giordano, 144, Newark, outpointed Johnny Darby, 148, Paterson, in the feature eight-round bout at Laurel Garden last night.

Indians Club Red Sox In Early Frames

Boston (AP)—The Cleveland Indians used Will Nixon's wildness and a pair of singles for three first inning runs yesterday and maintained that three run edge in defeating the Boston Red Sox 6-3.

The Indians Dave Philley clouted a long homer into the screen in left-center off reliever Bill Werle in the fifth inning.

Al Rosen, again playing first base with rookie Rudy Regalado holding down third, drove home three of the winners' runs.

Wildness

Nixon, plainly showing the effects of two rain caused postponements, walked the first two batters and then was belted for a run scoring single by Wally Westlake.

Rosen then drilled a two-run single to right. He was out trying to stretch the hit and after Nixon walked two more batters he was derelicted for Werle.

The Indians added a pair in the second on the combination of a walk to Mike Garcia, singled by Bobby Avila and Westlake, a force-out and Rosen's sacrifice fly.

Garcia had a shutout going until the fifth when he suffered a lapse of control and walked Jimmy Pier-sall and Milt Bolling before Billy Goodman, with two out, tripled to right center for two runs.

Two hits and a pair of Indian errors accounted for Boston's other run in the sixth.

Roberts faced only 30 batters in recording the 24th shutout of his major league career and his second this season.

Pirates Shade Cardinals, 4-3

St. Louis (AP)—Dick Cole slammed a two-run single in the ninth inning last night to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals as Redbird pitchers struck out 14 men.

Strikeouts

Neither Harvey Haddix nor Pirate rookie Bob Purkey were around when the game ended. Haddix fanned 13 men before he was relieved after Cole's game-winning hit brought the Pirates from behind a one-run deficit.

Nazareth Rallies To Sink Bangor

Bangor—Three unearned runs in the sixth inning yesterday carried Nazareth High to a 3-2 Lehigh-Northampton League baseball victory over Bangor High, here at Memorial Park.

The Slaters had vaulted into a 2-0 lead in the fourth frame and held the advantage intact, going into the sixth round. But, Nazareth took advantage of a big break to pile up its winning margin.

Frank Nikels opened the frame with a walk and went to second while Nemith was being thrown out at first. Abel obtained a life on Roy Welser's error and Nikels scored on the play. Abel stole second as Dech fanned. Agnew followed with a double to left to plate Abel and Werkeiser drove Agnew home with the winning run on a single. Werkeiser was out stealing to end the inning.

Two Counters

Bangor's two counters came on a hit batter, a double and a single in the fourth. Dale LaBar was hit by a pitch and raced all the way home as Ralph "Barney" Stenlake raced all the way home on a double down the right field line.

Don Keat grounded out, but Duane Miller spanked a single to plate Stenlake with the second run. Miller stole second, but was out trying to swipe third.

Bill Agnew limited Bangor to six hits, one in each of the first, third, sixth and seventh innings, plus the two in the fourth. Raph dropped his second one-run decision of the season to Nazareth, although the junior southpaw held the Blue Eagles to five safeties.

Nazareth's 2-1 win earlier in the campaign was an exhibition decision and didn't figure in the standings.

Dodgers Hit Five Home Runs In Taking Measure Of Reds

Cincinnati (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers clubbed Cincinnati's "go-phers" pitching for five home runs last night and a 7-5 victory.

All of the Dodger homers came off starter Harry Perkowski. Two of them were by Junior Gilliam and there was one each by Duke Snider, Dick Williams and Pee-wee Reese.

One of Gilliam's blows and that by Reese came on successive times at bat in the sixth and it was the third time in the last three games that Redleg hurlers have given up back to back home runs. The five homers brought to 31 the number hit off Cincinnati pitchers in the first 15 games of the season.

The three home runs the Dodgers hit in the sixth marked the 11th time a Brooklyn team has accomplished that feat. Williams also got his homer in that frame in which the Brooks scored four times to wrap up the ball game.

Louis Trigiani, league president, also announced that several donations have been received in recent days.

The above action took place during a Wednesday meeting at the Fourth Ward Citizens Club.

Orioles Shade Senators, 2-1

Washington (AP)—Bob Turley survived several late inning threats to defeat the Washington Senators, 2-1, on a five-hitter last night as Baltimore ended a three-game losing streak. Roy Sievers accounted for the lone run off Turley, who posted his second win, with a fourth inning home run.

Five Hits
The Orioles, held to five hits by Maury McDermott, scored both their runs in the second inning after Sam Mele walked and was forced by Don Lenhardt, Vern Stephens filed out, but Les Moss' liner or struck third base and bounded into left field for a double, Lenhardt halting at third.

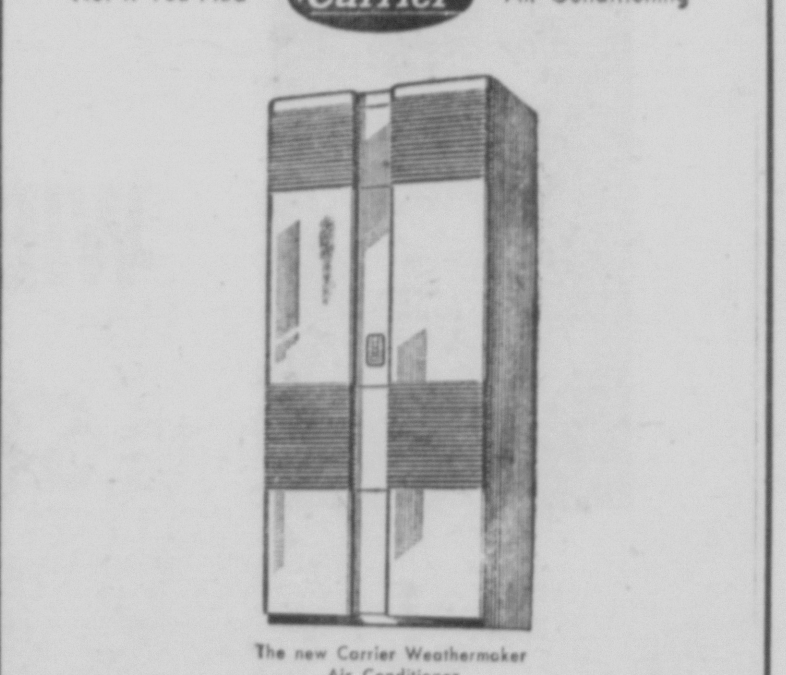

Lenhardt scored on a wild pitch as Moss moved to third and Bill Hunter's single, which third baseman Eddie Soto knocked down with a dive, scored Moss.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Harry Warner, a resident of Reeders and one of the most popular baseball players to ever come out of Monroe County, will do his slugging on the west coast this summer. Warner's contract has been assigned to Salem, Oregon, of the class "A" Western International League, by the Milwaukee Braves the club that originally purchased Warner from the Stroudsburg Poconos, of the now defunct class "D" North Atlantic League. Harry is a graduate of Pocono High, where he starred in both basketball and baseball. He is also well known in both the basketball and baseball Pocono Mountains Leagues.

Warner will be heading west as soon as plane reservations can be made. Five not too distant high schools are searching for head football coaches at the present time. The list includes Bethlehem, Summit Hill, St. Clair, Cass Township and Lansford. The fact that Stroudsburg Speedway has announced its opening date made many people sit up and take notice yesterday. Current plans call for the shows to be bigger and better than ever before. The dustless half-mile dirt track will open on Saturday, May 22.

One of the biggest shots in the arm to education in Pocono Township is now in the talking stage. The school board, hard pressed with the problem of increasing enrollment, is currently working overtime in an effort to find suitable space for class rooms. Infant plans call for making two class rooms out of the present gymnasium and to build a new gym with a regulation basketball court. Other new class rooms are also planned in the present building. Due to the expenses involved the question will have to be placed before the voters of Pocono Township.

The construction of a new gymnasium would greatly improve the physical education department at Pocono. The department at the present time is under the very fine leadership of Harry Wertheimer, but the lack of space makes the task much more difficult than it would be under regulation conditions. The construction of a new gymnasium would also give Pocono High the only regulation basketball court in the Monroe County League. This reporter has been hopeful that every jointure mentioned in this area would actually become a reality.

Jointures would make a new school necessary and in the construction a gymnasium of adequate size would be a must. The fact that youngsters have regular basketball court and other setups of regulation size greatly benefits the student when he makes the switch from high school to college. It has long been my contention that the reason athletes in the Monroe County League rarely make the grade in college basketball is the fact that the various youngsters are forced to play on a postage stamp size court. A regulation court would improve the individual performance of the boy and would also turn the games into high calibre battles.

Nobody is to blame for the present small courts. The courts were contracted when only a limited amount of space and still less money was available. This scribe is just one of many fans who can remember when two schools in the Monroe County League didn't have their own basketball courts and had to play all their games on the road. It was necessary to turn the auditorium into gymnasiums and make basketball possible in the circuit. I hope that a new gymnasium will be constructed at Pocono and that it is just the beginning of a trend throughout the reaches of the Monroe County League.

It is quite possible that the Babe Ruth League of the Stroudsburgs may operate as a six-team circuit during the coming summer months. If the number of players reporting next Tuesday makes it necessary, a sixth team will be added to the standings. Five clubs made up the circuit last year. Cole's Drug Store won the Commercial "C" League bowling playoff by 72 pins over Regina Hotel. Stroudsburg Auto Body captured the Commercial "B" League bowling crown by 52 pins over Line Material. The Auto Body contingent held a 1002-833 edge in the final game to turn the tide.

According to information forwarded to this department the 1952 contest was the first 1000 performance for Stroudsburg Auto Body in the past two years. The Commercial "C" League will hold its annual banquet at the Locust Grove House, near Bushkill, tonight.

In answer to a query: Art Wall, winner of the Tournament of Champions and touring golf pro for Pocono Manor, is married and the father of a boy. The Walls are expecting an addition to the family sometime in the near future. Mrs. Wall was present in Las Vegas when Art won his initial major title. She is also with him in San Francisco at the present time.

Monroe County League Opens 1954 Baseball Campaign Today

Three baseball games are on tap for the Monroe County League today, as the circuit launches the 1954 campaign. All games are scheduled to get under way at 7:30 p. m.

The usual six teams will take part in the present race, which consists of only five games for each school. The entries are Barrett, Polk, Chestnuthill, Tobyhanna Township, Coolbaugh and Pocono.

Today's opening card will send Chestnuthill against Tobyhanna Township, at Pocono Pines, while Barrett battles Polk, at Kresgeville and Pocono tangles with Coolbaugh, on the latter's home field in Tobyhanna.

League games will be played every Tuesday and Friday for the next two and one-half weeks, with the assistance of the weatherman.

Keiper's Laundry Uses Quick Start To Trip Worthington

Eight runs in the first three innings enabled Keiper's Laundry to coast to a 9-2 victory over Worthington Mower in a Monroe County Softball League contest played at Gordon Giffels field last night.

Keiper's club picked up two runs in the first, the same number in the second, and four counters in the fourth. The winning contin-

Skittlers Make Plans For Next Season

High Team in final standings of the Skittler's Bowling League was Team One, of which Peg Shull was captain, while Joyce Pedersen had high average of 133 for the year; Sig Butler, high single with 200; Audrey Cohen, high triple with 476. Bea Toewe had the largest number of strikes; Doris Shinn, the most spares; and Trudy Hellman showed the greatest improvement during the year.

These and other prizes were awarded at the annual luncheon held yesterday noon at the Penn Stroud Hotel. Jean Kiefer, president, made the presentations. She also paid tribute to her officers, Mrs. Shull, corresponding secretary; Audrey Wyckoff, recording secretary; and Mrs. Butler, chairman of substitutes.

New officers elected included Betty Schell, president; Pauline Grover, secretary; Peg Kloess, treasurer, and Mrs. Butler, corresponding secretary. During the business session, the members voted on changes in rules for next year, and to continue to bowl on Thursday afternoons at the Pocono Bowling Center.

Sally Fandler was chairman of the luncheon committee which also included Jo McDowell and Mrs. Shinn. Four members had records of perfect attendance all year: Sylvia Bennett, Mrs. Kloess, Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. Toewe. Final team standings were as follows:

Team One, Mrs. Shull, Captain; Team Four, Toewe; Team Five, Butler; Team Eight, Fandler; Team Seven, Cohen; Team Six, Pedersen; Team Two and Three, tied for seventh.

Bantam Rivals Finish Training

Bangkok (Pa.)—World bantamweight champion Jimmy Carruthers of Australia and challenger Chamern Songkritrat, the Thailand belter, ended heavy training last night for their title bout Sunday.

Even Money

The fight was even money but there was little betting. About the only money in sight was the $225,000 in gate receipts already paid in by 50,000 fans who bought tickets.

Association Lists Slate For Two Weeks

Lake Ariel—The Pocono Mountain Association, which still could utilize another entry, embarks upon its 17th year with three games on Sunday as follows: Gouldsboro, 1953 playoffs winners, at Maple Lake; Hamlin Highlanders at Daleville, and St. Catherine's of Moscow at Tobyhanna.

The enforced withdrawal of the perennial champions, the Newfoundland Bears, because of systematic raids on their roster by teams from other leagues, left the PMA lineup with seven clubs. As a result, one club will remain idle each week, and as a starter, it is Mount Cobb. There is a chance, however, that an eighth team will be obtained, inasmuch as Cresco in Monroe County is reported as being interested.

No Changes
No managerial changes are noted for the new season, as all the old standbys, men who make baseball possible in the Pocono area, are back in harness again. It is refreshing to observe that these leaders, men who have long since passed their prime, are back, to wit: Jake Blumer at Maple Lake, Harry Sebring at Gouldsboro, Frank Kurdzil at Daleville, Leslie Black at Hamlin, "Zig" Stepinak at Moscow, "Candy" Dailey and Mike Shimko at Tobyhanna, and Stan Prokop at Mount Cobb.

President Bill Prokop, who is withholding publication of what he terms a tentative schedule, with the hope that an eighth team will be secured within the week, does list, however, the itinerary for Sunday, May 9, which is: Mount Cobb at Gouldsboro, Tobyhanna at Hamlin, Daleville at Moscow, with Maple Lake as the idle club.

The loop will again have representation in three counties, Lackawanna, Wayne and Monroe. Umpire service will be handled by the Lackawanna County Umpires' Association. The lone Monroe entry, Tobyhanna, like Newfoundland, too has been riddled by player raids, but Dailey and Shimko declare they'll go along even if they have to revert to the use of high schoolers.

Favorite In Tie For Lead

Athens, Ga. (Pa.)—Arnold Palmer of Wake Forest, a favorite and Melvin Deitch of N. C. State, an unheralded outsider, shot three-under-par 69s yesterday to share the first round lead in the 17th Southern Intercollegiate golf tournament.

Scores

Palmer, who won here in 1950, carded a 34-35-69 and Deitch a 35-34-69 over the 6,534-yard Athens Country Club course. Par is 36-36-72.

Hockey Star Wins Two Honors

Montreal (Pa.)—Leonard Patrick "Red" Kelly, whose conduct on the hockey rinks belies his fiery Irish name and appearance, is the 1953-54 winner of two National Hockey League trophies which require steadiness and cool behavior.

Awards

Kelly, playing for the Detroit Red Wings, won the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy for "sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct" for the third time in four years and the new James Norris Memorial Trophy for outstanding performance by a defenseman, NHL headquarters revealed yesterday.

Kelly is one of the reasons Detroit has dominated by Stanley Cup playoffs in recent years.

ESSTC Bows To Wilkes, 11-10

Two Run In Ninth Prove Fatal

Wilkes-Barre — Two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning enabled Wilkes College to come from behind here yesterday and score an 11-10 victory over East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. The game was played on the winning team's home field.

ESSTC, winner over Wilkes earlier in the campaign, entered the final inning on the long end of a 10-9 count.

Jim Passaro retired the first batter in the home half of the final frame, but a single, two errors and a fly ball to center that became lost in the sun enabled the home team to finish on the long end of the count in a game that required three hours to play.

The loss evened the season mark at three wins and the same number of defeats for ESSTC.

Home Run

Lyle Krall's tremendous home run into left center field in the fourth frame, with two mates aboard, sent the Warriors into an 8-4 lead at the time. The homer was the second in as many games for the lanky shortstop who drove four runners into paydirt yesterday.

A triple by Bob Hartman and a double by Don Bachtell highlighted a four-run second inning for the Warriors and the visiting contingent appeared enroute to another easy victory.

A total of eight errors and a series of mental lapses caught up with the charges of Coach George Ockershausen and the home team turned the breaks into victory.

ESSTC lashed out 16 hits against a pair of Wilkes pitchers, while the home team picked up an even dozen safeties from the offerings of Jim Passaro.

East Stroudsburg plays at Kutztown on Saturday, with Tom Foley listed to pitch.

Kulp's Foundry Takes Over First Place In Softball Loop

A double, single and a bobbled ground ball in the outfield in the ninth inning last night enabled Kulp's Foundry to score a 7-6 victory over Empire Box at Stroudsburg Playground.

The win allowed Kulp's club to take over sole possession of first place in the Monroe County Softball League.

Warriorettes Blank Drexel In Tennis

Philadelphia—The girls' tennis team of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College scored a 6-0 victory over Drexel here at 46th and Market Sts. yesterday.

The Warriorettes won their second match without a loss this season, as they swept every event on yesterday's program.

Jean Hecht scored a 6-2, 6-3 win over Drexel's Judy Vogt in the number one singles match, while Nancy Noll outlasted Wesa Wilcox in a three-set match between a pair of left handers.

Marathon

Noll dropped the first set, 6-1, but came back to win the match by 6-4, 6-3 scores.

Elaine Hardenburgh completed the singles warfare by giving the Warriorettes another win as she took the measure of Louise Wycogh, 6-3, 6-0.

Marion LaPrete and Martha McAndrew got the Warriorettes off to a good start in the doubles by winning the first match from Alice Miller and Mickey Dougherty, 6-3, 6-0.

The final doubles encounter was won by Marilyn Dautrich and Margaret Rothel over Drexel's Fran Nucci and Mary Budd, 6-4, 6-0.

ESSTC's girls return to the tennis courts next Tuesday, when Moravian College appears on the Normal Hill courts.

Kryhoski Suffers Another Fracture

Washington (Pa.)—Dick Kryhoski, Baltimore Oriole first baseman who had just about recovered from a broken wrist bone, yesterday came up with a cracked rib to prolong his stay on the bench.

Batted Ball

Kryhoski was struck in the side by a ball hit by outfielder Gil Coan during batting practice Tuesday and X-Rays disclosed the crack. Oriole officials said he would not be able to play for at least seven more days.

D. W. Warrick To Swap Jobs With Boss Before Retiring

By James B. Gaffney

D. W. Warrick of 114 Stokes Ave., Stroudsburg, will swap places with his boss next week, taking over duties as honorary manager of Armour and Company's branch house in Scranton.

A salesman with headquarters in Scranton, the Stroudsburg man will round out a 34-year career with Armour during May as he assumes the "manager's" post. Warrick is scheduled to retire May 29.

Warrick was elected by fellow salesmen to occupy the chair of C. B. Greene, manager. He has worked for Armour since 1920 and currently covers the sales territory in the Poconos, the Stroudsburgs and surrounding communities.

Paul H. Flory, of Trader's Flour and Feed Co., 285 Washington St., East Stroudsburg, was among the farm feed salesmen to attend the second merchandising school sponsored by Kasco Mills, Inc. at Waverly, N. Y., recently.

During the two-day session attended by Kasco representatives from several Eastern States, Flory saw demonstrations of improved methods of feeding and management.

Emphasis still is on building and remodeling in the Poconos.

From the Bartonsville area our correspondent, Mrs. Robert Field, reports Cameron Metzger and Son, Stroudsburg mason contractors, have started work on three new units at Kane's Kozy Kabins on Route 611 just north of the junction with Route 12. Raymond Kane is the cabin-colony owner.

And near Wigwag Park, still along Route 611, Snow's refreshment stand has been remodeled and given a face-lifting.

From Bushkill our correspondent, Mrs. Lawrence Butz, says Mrs. Margaret Brandt and Mrs. Josephine Brish, owners of Mayo Shawnee Tomato Juice plant are in production for the second year.

The women had an exhibit booth at last week's Pocono Mountains Hotel Show in the Penn Stroud Hotel. They employ 10 persons during canning season. Their plant is located at Bushkill Falls.

Chester Mills, manager of Ted Gels Clothing Store, 542 Main St., Stroudsburg, is attending the men's apparel show in Philadelphia this weekend.

Thrift, Truth Emphasized At Assembly

Tannersville—Pocono Township High School students heard an assembly program on "thrift and truth" this week.

The program was prepared by seventh graders in the homeroom supervised by Fannie Melhuish, art and Latin instructor.

Joyce Hay gave the opening devotion which was followed by a recitation on "Thrift" by Beverly Price.

A playlet based on the early life of Benjamin Franklin was then presented. Cast members were Douglas Bauman, Jerry Peechatka, Allen Raish, Bonnie Martinelli, Harrison Stewart, Billy Scharf, Paul Frailey, Fred Tucker, Nancy Starner, Billy Munch, Lois Strand and Joyce Hay.

Other recitations were given by Nancy Canfield, Nancy Shaffer, Judith Singer and Martin Zeck.

A play, "One Little White Lie", ended the program. In the cast were: Jane Law, Larry Starner, Beverly Hartman, Marie Beecker, Barbara Metzger and Nancy Canfield.

Bill To Establish Washington's Final Rank Introduced

Washington, D.C.—Sens. Martin (R-Pa.) and Duff (R-Pa.) yesterday introduced a bill to establish the final rank of George Washington as general of the Armies, and date it back to June 18, 1775.

That was the date on which the second Continental Congress elected Washington to head the army of the united colonies.

Martin told the Senate that as the situation now stands, Washington's name is 46th on the rolls of the U. S. armed forces. He leads the lieutenant generals, but is outranked by all generals, generals of the Army, and the one general of the Armies, the late John J. Pershing.

Machinists To Conduct Institute

East Stroudsburg High School has been set as one location for a five-session educational institute next month by International Association of Machinists, District 128.

Locals 1724, Ronson Co.; No. 1643, Stroudsburg Engine Works, and No. 1800, Line-Material Co., are members of District 128.

The local lodges started the move to have an educational institute. The classes will be held alternately with similar classes at Workingmen's Hall, Adler St. and Prospect Ave., South Scranton, except for the final session; that will be held in East Stroudsburg.

Business agent Emerson F. Stanton said the classes are open to the entire union membership, not only to officers. Information may be had by contacting him at 450 N. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg.

Subject of the institute: the local lodge, and the local lodge in action, said Stanton. In charge of the institute will be Tom Tippet, director of education for IAM in Washington, D. C. Assisting will be John Curran of the Washington headquarters.

The classes will start at 7:30 p.m. East Stroudsburg sessions will be held May 3, 5, 7 and 11. In Scranton, dates will be May 4, 6, 10 and 12.

Final session will be at East Stroudsburg May 18, when a film will be shown and refreshments served by the East Stroudsburg lodges.

Curriculum Development Workshop Held

Bangor — The first of a series of workshops in the study of curriculum development and improvement was held by the teachers and administrators of the Bangor school system and a few guests Wednesday afternoon in Bangor High School.

This session and another similar workshop scheduled for May 13 culminate a year-long study by various groups and committees of Bangor teachers. The program, which will possibly extend through the 1954-55 school year as well, has been undertaken by the Bangor Branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association with the approval and aid of the Bangor Board of Education.

Among the many purposes of the program are the study of curriculum problems, curriculum improvement and vitalization, and the development of pupil growth.

Consultants for the three-hour session Wednesday were Dr. Nell Murphy and Dr. Gilbert Selders, both reading and study specialists in the School of Education at Pennsylvania State University. The teachers were divided into two discussion groups which were each addressed by Dr. Murphy and Dr. Selders.

A study of the findings of surveys and research conducted in the Bangor schools and community relative to the problem of reading and study habits was made and solutions offered by the consultants.

Dr. Murphy explored the area of reading and study habits pointing out the many difficulties encountered such as lack of comprehension, vocabulary, pronunciation, slowness in reading, retention of material read, and poor reading habits.

She suggested that the problem of good reading was the responsibility of all teachers and offered means of discovering reading and study faults. She also suggested methods of solving the problems through developmental reading of contemporary materials, readings of present day activities and interest — and the vast use of audio-visual means to arouse interest in proper reading habits.

Dr. Selders discussed ways to increase speed and comprehension in reading. He demonstrated means of increasing eye span to accomplish faster reading. He suggested, "forcing the eyes to move faster." He pointed out that while comprehension may lessen for a time in this remedial method, it will soon increase with the continuation of drills. He suggested the development of peripheral vision through the increase in eye span to take in whole phrases instead of one word in reading.

In her concluding remarks, Dr. Murphy said, "The Bangor faculty is to be complimented for their understanding of school problems —an understanding of one another's problems and a cooperative school administration." She further complimented the Bangor teachers on "having started—which is unique—a greater understanding of high school education by the elementary teachers and vice versa."

She continued, "The experimentation being carried on in the many areas where problems develop is an accomplishment and I express the hope that the Bangor schools will continue their searching and study in an attempt to solve these problems."

Guests at the workshop included Dr. William French, Dept. of Education, Muhlenberg College; Paul R. Kramer, principal, Rauh Elementary School, Allentown; Miss Ruth Wahrman, Allentown; Miss Meryle Hattaway and Mrs. Doris Stearns, Fountain Hill; and Miss Amie Diefenderfer, Whitehall.

Also Dr. Clyde Uhler, principal, March Jr. High School, Easton; Miss Lillian Meade, Easton; Miss Elizabeth Koegel and Miss Ruth Schaeffer, Lehigh; Miss Addie Kern, Slatington; Miss Thelma Andreas and Miss Naomi Snyder, Palmerton.

Also in attendance were Miss Nan Jenkins, Assistant County Superintendent of Carbon County and Dr. R. N. Davenport, psychologist of Northampton, Monroe, and Carbon Counties.

The program was under the general chairmanship of Armon Williams, president of the Bangor PSEA. The committee responsible for the study and arrangements were: Miss Beulah McFall, Miss Margery Traves, Miss Evelyn Reimel, John Pearsall and Trevor Williams.

The next conference will be held on Thursday, May 13, in the Bangor High School.

TOO YOUNG TO DIE!

When epidemic strikes and takes its sudden and deadly count of the young, it tears at our heartstrings for there is so little we can do about it. Such tragedies may occur once in a year or two. But the highway toll of young innocents produces a casualty list every day, year after year. There is much we can do about it, for we are responsible.

In one year 4,300 young lives are snuffed out, over 200,000 injured and maimed for life. Three out of every four of these lives sacrificed to carelessness are from 5 to 14 years of age. Too young to die!

School safety patrols are holding down the casualties of children going to or coming from school. Two out of three are killed while outside of school supervision. That's the big reason why it's up to you, Mr. and Mrs. Driver, to protect little children. Be alert for the unpredictable actions of youngsters at play, crossing streets, chasing balls and riding bikes.

Little ones are thoughtless of danger; perhaps, too, they trust grown folks to guard them. Don't be the one to carry on your conscience the life of a child. Slow down, be alert where children may be at your mercy.

Methodists To Install New Pastor

Canadensis—Rev. John R. Hoeman, the new pastor of the Canadensis Moravian Church, will be officially installed on Sunday at the 11 a. m. service. Rev. Dr. F. P. Stocker, of Bethlehem, president of the Provincial Elders Conference or governing board of the Moravian Church, will officiate.

The members of the board of elders and of the board of trustees of the Canadensis Church will be seated together on the front pews for the service and at the designated time will rise and in behalf of the congregation pledge their support to the new pastor.

The sermon will be delivered by the new pastor. Special music will be provided by the church choir. Rev. Hoeman was born July 12, 1893 in Vigo County, Ind. He was educated in the Wiley High School, Terre Haute, Ind., and Moravian College and Theological Seminary, Bethlehem, Pa. He was ordained a minister of the Moravian Church on Oct. 14, 1923, at Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., by Bishop Karl A. Mueller. On Sept. 13, 1929 he was advanced to the second order of the ministry, and was ordained a presbyter, Bishop Mueller again officiating.

He served as pastor of the Trinity and Rudolph Moravian Churches, Wisconsin Rapids, from 1923 to 1931. For the next five years he was pastor of the Moravian congregation at West Salem, Ill. After this he served for three years as pastor of the Ephraim and Sister Bay congregations in Wisconsin. Farmers Warned Against Danger Of Killing Fish

Harrisburg (AP)—The Agriculture Department yesterday asked Pennsylvania farmers to prevent pesticides from being put into streams and killing fish.

The department said the fish commission reports that in three instances within the past week pesticides were put into streams, destroying thousands of fish.

In each case farmers had been spraying fields for Control of spittle bug. The farmers had apparently washed out their spray rigs near streams, the department said.

Many pesticides not harmful to humans are toxic to fish, the department explained, in warning farmers not to wash equipment near streams or ponds.
